

WITH MUSICIANS OF CITY OF SAINTS

State Anthem Symphony the Leading Event of Coming Week.

CHORUS OF SIXTEEN
SALT LAKE SINGERS

Will Be Under the Leadership of Mrs. Charles G.
Plummer.

Tomorrow evening at the Salt Lake theater will take place the State anthem symphony, given under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian association. A chorus of sixteen of Salt Lake's best-known singers, under the leadership of Mrs. Charles G. Plummer, and with Mr. Peabody as accompanist, will sing two verses each of the twenty-six selections made by the committee. The chorus has been thoroughly drilled and the evening's entertainment promises to be not only enjoyable, but valuable in aiding those who wish to vote for the State anthem to do so more intelligently than heretofore could. The program will begin at 8:15 o'clock. Seats will not be reserved after 1:30 o'clock and those holding coupons for reserved seats will be obliged to present them before that hour or they will not be honored. No great has been the demand for seats that it has been found necessary to adopt this rule in order to give all the public a fair chance.

One of the leading events of the week, both from the social and the musical standpoint, will be the entertainment at the First Congregational church on Tuesday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller will entertain a large number of their friends. Mrs. Miller, as is well known, is one of the talented organists of the city, and in the programme to be presented she will be assisted by Hugh Douglas, harpist, and Miss Judith Evans, piano accompanist. Following the musical programme the guests will repair to the church parlors, where the social hour will be passed.

Willard White, who will conduct the orchestra at the new Orpheus theater, has gone to Chicago to secure a supply of musical scores. The personnel of the orchestra includes many of Salt Lake's best-known instrumentalists, among them being Willard White and Willard Youngdale, first violins; Alf Matherson, second violin; Fred Mielke, viola; Chris Johnson, string bass; John Smith, flute; Walter Sims, clarinet; A. K. Mollerup, cornet; W. H. Paulsen, trombone; and E. E. Brown, drums.

Due to an unusually busy season, the symphony orchestra-Orpheus club concert has been postponed until early in January. It was to have taken place tomorrow evening at the Salt Lake theater.

The second in the series of concerts to be given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. at their auditorium will take place next Thursday evening. The artists who will participate are Miss Agatha Herkholz, Miss Cecilia Sharp, H. S. Ensign and W. J. Flashman. With such musical talent taking part, those attending are sure to enjoy a treat.

Members of St. Mark's cathedral choir have been practicing for a month past on the Christmas music, which is also a feature of the Christmas service. Carl Schied is director of the choir and A. H. Peabody organist.

Miss Beatrice O'Connor will sing "The Brighter Day," by Maccheroni, this morning at St. Paul's church. Helen Hartley will play the violin obligato.

At St. Mary's cathedral this morning Mrs. G. E. Curtis, Miss Lottie Owen and J. E. Curtis will sing an "Ave Verum" by Mercadante.

The organ recital which Mr. McClellan was to have given during the coming week at Grand Junction has been postponed until December 18.

Spohr's anthem, "As Pante the Heart," will be sung by the choir at the First Baptist church this morning.

UTAHN ACHIEVES HONORS

Athol Rawlins Wins Place on Debating Team at Ann Arbor.

Salt Lake friends of Athol Rawlins, son of former Senator J. L. Rawlins, will be pleased to learn that he has achieved a winning place on the collegiate debating team. With scores of others, young Rawlins entered the preliminary try-outs soon after the opening of college last fall, never expecting that he would be successful. With each successive contest the ranks of the aspirants were thinned until only thirteen remained. Encouraged by his success in these contests, Rawlins took heart and worked incessantly for the final, determined to at least do his best. It was Athol Rawlins' method of handling the subject and his brilliant rebuttal that won him a place on the team over an experienced stump speaker who has once been a candidate for Congress. By members of the Michigan faculty his final rebuttal was pronounced to be probably the best ever given at Michigan in a preliminary contest. Along with two fellow-students, Mr. Rawlins will uphold Michigan's great reputation in debate against the powerful rival universities in the middle West during the next few months.

For considerable of his education Athol Rawlins is indebted to the public schools of Salt Lake. In 1899 he was graduated from the Lowell school as valedictorian. After spending one year at the Salt Lake high school he entered Mercerberg academy, where he did three years' work in two and graduated with honors. During his senior year at Mercerberg he was manager of the football team. Mr. Rawlins is now in his senior year at Michigan and will be graduated next June with a bachelor's degree in the literature department. He belongs to one of the leading fraternities at Michigan. He is a member of the Michigan board, and was last fall elected a member of the senior council which dictates the policy of the senior class. When it is remembered that there are 500 members in the graduating class at Michigan this year, the honor of election to the senior council becomes apparent.

Of the many Utahns who have tried for the college debating team while doing work at Michigan, Athol Rawlins is one of the few who have succeeded. The skill through which the student is put before he even gets a chance to do his best, preliminary for the Michigan debating team is very trying. It resembles more than anything else the Tost system in football, and like it, has brought victory after victory until Michigan has established her supremacy in debate as in football.

PRESENTATION TO CHAIRMAN DARMER

Woman's Auxiliary to American Party Presents Resolutions of Gratitude.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the American party held a meeting yesterday in the Commercial Bank building and took occasion to present to J. E. Darmer a set of printed and framed resolutions of gratitude from the Woman's Auxiliary.
The resolutions were fittingly couched in terms of praise and gratitude for Mr.
Darmer's work in behalf of the women of Utah and for his kindness to the women of the auxiliary during the campaign.

Mrs. Campbell Makes Presentation.

The committee preparing the resolutions was composed of Mrs. E. L. Campbell, Mrs. L. E. Conley and Mrs. E. Schneider.
The presentation was made by Mrs. L. E.
Campbell in a few appropriate words, which were received by Mr. Darmer with evident emotion.

Mr. Darmer Returns Thanks.
Then, recovering himself from the surprise with much difficulty, he expressed his thanks to the ladies and gave them kind words of encouragement. He said the work they are expected to do for the cause in the next campaign, as the party is depending upon the auxiliary for all the help they can render. Subjoined is a copy of the resolutions:

Resolutions of Gratitude.

Whereas, as chairman of the Salt Lake City committee of the American party of Utah, the Hon. J. E. Darmer performed such conspicuous and patriotic service that he is entitled to the gratitude of all Americans in Utah and in the Nation; and Whereas, the great movement of American-ism in this State is due to its support by American women here and by the organization of women in the United States who recognize the moral ground on which we are waging the battle; and

Whereas, the Woman's auxiliary to the American party in Utah, in rendering its service, has shown a devotion to the cause which is worthy of the highest praise; and in its valuable advice, his courteous demeanor and his prompt utilization of the efforts of the auxiliary in the battle which has been fought in Salt Lake, with the result of glorious victory for the American cause;

Now, therefore, the Woman's auxiliary to the American party of Utah, speaking in behalf of its organization and the women thereof, and speaking in behalf of American womanhood and the home throughout the United States, hereby tender to the Hon. J. E.
Darmer, its sincere and grateful thanks for his untiring devotion to this holy cause, and also its appreciation of his great ability as an organizer and a leader.

MRS. E. L. CAMPBELL, chairman.
MRS. L. E. CONLEY.
MRS. E. SCHNEIDER.
Salt Lake City, November 9, 1905.

Incentive to Further Work.

While Mr. Darmer is deeply appreciative of the kindness of the ladies, he looks upon the gift as an incentive to further work in the great cause, not only by himself, but all who have the cause at heart. He fully recognizes the great assistance the ladies gave in the recent campaign, and trusts they will continue their work as much depends upon their co-operation and labor.

Committee on Constitution.

A committee on constitution and by-laws was appointed by the ladies to report at the next meeting for reorganization, consisting of the following ladies: Mrs. Frances Veltch, Mrs. S. Randolph, Mrs. L. E. Conley, Mrs. W. Graves and Mrs. H. W. Smith.

DOG WAS SILENT

Cartoonist Outcault Tells a Good Story on a Pup.

Needless to say, a humorist will grasp at any profession, race or creed in his endeavors to secure fitting stories with which to amuse his auditors. "Dick" Outcault, the cartoonist and story teller, is no exception to this rule. Recently he told an amusing story about a stranded thespian, walking from city to city, accompanied by a mongrel pup. The actor in question, possessed among his accomplishments, the art of ventriloquism.
Stopping at a saloon in a small city, he stepped up to the bar, with the last in-cent he possessed in the world and called for a glass of beer.

Turning to the pup sitting at his feet, he said: "What will you have, old man?" The apparent answer came from the actor: "I'll have the same."

The bartender, who was the proprietor, looked over the bar and said: "Was that the dog talking?"

"Of course," said the actor. "He's the only talking dog in the world."

"Will you sell him?" said the proprietor.
"No indeed," said the actor. "We've been together for many years and I wouldn't want to lose him now."

"Give you $100 for him," said the proprietor.

"No, sir," said the actor. "This dog isn't for sale. He's the only one of his kind in the universe, and I wouldn't sell him for any amount of money offered."

"Tell you what I'll do though," said the proprietor. "You loan me $100 and I'll leave the dog with you for a few weeks till I can return the money."

"Done," said the proprietor.
The poor pup sat on the floor, never mixing in this conversation. As the man started out the door the actor called to follow, but met this injunction from the bartender man, "Oh, no, old boy, you stay here till I return."

"What?" from the dog, "you're going to leave me here?"

"Yes, till I return for you."
"Well," said the dog, "if you leave me here now, I'll never say a d-word till you come back."

TRIBUNE UTAH ANTHEMS

Second Choir of Thirty Voices Organized to Sing Them.

The Tribune Utah anthems are proving of great interest, not only to poets and musicians, but to the public in general.
Aside from the anthem symposium to be given under the auspices of the Y. M. C.
A. tomorrow evening at the Salt Lake theater, there is another splendid choir of thirty voices being organized to sing the anthems at an entertainment by the National Guard of Utah, at Army hall, Tuesday evening. The enterprise is being favored by Gen. George H. Rains, who is specially patronized by company H, whose glee club will assist in the singing.

It is also expected that through the cooperation of company B of Ogden, the anthems will be rendered later in that city by this choir. Mrs. Kate Bridwell, Anderson, the choir director, believes the world should have been a wider scope, and the anthems be sung ultimately in every city in Utah.

Prof. Metcalf of the Pierpont school of oratory, will recite each of the anthems just prior to its rendition by the choir, and the programme will be interspersed with life tableaux of Utah's cities. It is hoped also to give the Utah scenes by stereopticon. The choir will practice next Tuesday at Army hall.

New Complaint Filed.

Carl Marshall, charged with criminal intimacy with thirteen-year-old Helen Hunt, was arraigned upon a new complaint in Justice Dana T. Smith's court Saturday. He pleaded not guilty, waived preliminary hearing and was held to the Third District court on a bond in the sum of $3000.

REINCORPORATION OF IRRIGATION COMPANY

Lake Bottom Concern Files New Articles With the County Clerk.

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, Dec. 2.—Articles reincorporating the Lake Bottom Irrigation company were filed with the County Clerk today. The capital stock is $25,000 and the land-owners of Lake View and Vineyard are the subscribers. George C. Scott, Jr., is president, William Blake vice-president, J. J. Dilatush secretary and treasurer, and these, with William Clegg, M. Hold-way and M. F. Madison, form the board of directors.

Judge Booth held court today and, besides a number of private matters, disposed of the following business:

In the case of Marshall S. Allen vs. W. J.
Scobell judgment was awarded the plaintiff in the sum of $200 and $300 attorney fees.

Ada Christian vs. W. P. Christian, demurrer to complaint argued and overruled and defendant ordered to pay $50 per month alimony.

The body of Wilfrid Knudsen, the young missionary who died in Denmark, arrived in Provo today.

The Austrian who was badly beaten, it is alleged, with a shotgun in the hands of one Lombard, at Thistle a few days ago, is reported to be in a very bad condition. Blood poison has developed.

Masquerade Ball at Milford.

MILFORD, Dec. 2.—A masquerade ball was held tonight in the opera-house under the auspices of the Odd Fellows' lodge. It was a grand social success. The character portrayed were varied, grotesque and amusing.
The best character, for which a $5 prize was awarded, was awarded to Miss Ada Jennings.
One of the daintiest costumes was worn by Miss Mollie Forgie, assistant postmistress.

W. E. Powell, an experienced miner of Beaver Lake, leaves for New Mexico tonight via Salt Lake City.

POLICE ARE DENOUNCED

Grand Jury Declares St. Louis Department Demoralized.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 2.—In making its final report today the State October grand jury made a supplementary report characterizing the police department of St.
Louis as "demoralized" and "disorganized," charging that perjury and false testimony are regarded as duty by police and that witnesses are terrified and intimidated.

No names are mentioned, but the department is a severe condemnation and is recommended that the December grand jury more thoroughly investigate.

CONDEMNATION CASE SUBMITTED TO JURY

Johanson Suit at Logan Has Some Very Interesting Features.

Special to The Tribune.
LOGAN, Dec. 2.—The condemnation suit of Logan city against Johanson reached the jury early this evening, but there is little probability of a verdict tonight.

Johanson, who is known as the "rich Danishman," is the man who is alleged to have obtained the law of colonial marriage. Also stated, and owns thirty-eight acres of land in the seventh ward. Last spring the citizens petitioned the Council for a two-foot lane through the tract and the petition was granted on the ground that the road was a public necessity.

At a former hearing considerable amusement was occasioned by Josephine Peterson, the alleged plural wife, whom Johanson is alleged to have married in Mexico in 1904, being called as a witness. When called by Judge Hart the woman was sworn as "Mrs. Johanson," but before a question had been put to her Judge Hart appeared to realize suddenly that the attorney on the other side of the case, P. E.
Kessler, was a gentle, and announced, "We will ask no questions." The woman then returned from the stand.

The reading of sentences on W. J. James, convicted of the charge of incest, has been postponed until December 20, after a motion for a new trial will be argued.

SENT TO THE PEN.

Judge Booth Holds Session of Court at Vernal.

Special to The Tribune.
PROVO, Dec. 2.—Judge Booth and District Attorney Houtz arrived here yesterday morning from Vernal, where they have been holding a term of court. During the session two men were given State prison sentences for grand larceny.

In the case of Arthur Tanner, administrator, vs. Emma Carter, the defendant was given until December 5 to serve and file answer.

Judge Booth today appointed O. B. Hunting of Springville and Don C. Strong of Alpine as jury commissioners for 1906.

The immediate cause of the death recently of young William Burridge may never be known.
County Physician Westwood, after an examination of the body, stated that death might have resulted from any one of three causes, freezing, heart failure or apoplexy. Funeral services over the remains will be held in the pleasant view meeting-house at 1 p. m. Sunday.

sgiving in Provo, the guest of Miss Stella

M'CALL SAILS FOR PARIS

Expect to Bring Back Statement, if Not Hamilton.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—John C. McCall, secretary of the New York Life Insurance company, sailed today on the steamer Lucania, to go to Paris and try to induce Andrew Hamilton, to whom the New York Life has paid thousands of dollars, to return to this country and testify before the insurance investigating committee.

Today Mr. McCall said that he very much doubted whether Mr. Hamilton would return to the United States, but that he expected to bring back a statement which was being prepared by Mr.
Hamilton.

Platt Says It's Absurd.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Senator Platt of New York upon being asked today concerning the report that he intended to resign his seat in the Senate, replied:
"The report is too absurd to deny."

ASSESSMENT LEVIED BY FARMERS' UNION

American Fork Concern Needs Money to Carry on Its Business.

Special to The Tribune.
SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 2.—The Farmers' union, a corporation of this place, carrying on a general meat, grocery and produce business, has levied an assessment of $1 per share on its capital stock. This action is the outcome of a meeting of the board of directors held November 20. The company has been doing business for the past nine months and was established by the farmers of this end of the county for the purpose of handling farmers' produce and in return furnishing them with necessities in the way of merchandises. The venture has evidently not been as successful as was anticipated, although a large business has been done. During this fall the union has been in all about heavy cars of potatoes for the farmers, shipping them to outside markets. The assessment becomes delinquent on December 15, unless paid on or before January 15, 1906, the stock will be sold at public auction.

The merry jingle of sleigh-bells was heard upon the streets today for the first time in several years.

John Wright and F. W. Wright of this place have just returned from a seven-day visit in Sugar City, Ida., where they have been engaged in doing machinery work for the sugar company at that place.

Mrs. Henry Adams and son, W. C. Adams of Nephi, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Adams.

Samuel McNeil of this place, who is employed in the Oregon Short Line machine shops at Salt Lake City, is home for a few days.

A new company under the name of the American Fork Slaughterhouse company, with Craig & Jorgensen of this place as managers, has just started here at the stand formerly occupied by the firm of Wright & Co., which became insolvent during the last week.

On Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. Will Thornton of this place celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. They were married in 1855 in the city of New York.

Miss Cynthia Chipman of this place, who was stricken in Salt Lake City a short time since with a very bad case of appendicitis, is sufficiently recovered to return home and is expected to completely recover in a few days.

Miss Hazel Strong of Provo is visiting American Fork this week as the guest of Miss Sadie Laffer.

Judge Kelley of this place, who is attending the B. T. U. at Provo, is home for a few days, school having closed until Monday next.

Miss Lyle Winner of Salt Lake City is visiting American Fork, the guest of Mrs. W.
Grant.

AFRAID OF MOUNTAINS

Easterner Made Insane by the High Altitude.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Dec. 2.—Possessed of a dread of the mountains which amounted to almost maniacal fear, Frederick McJames, manager of a rating agency of San Francisco, who was passing through Trinidad on a westbound train, became violently insane and tried to jump from the car window several times between La Junta and Trinidad.

He had been taken with his wife on a visit and was taken ill. He was hurry-ing home to the lower altitude and his wife stated that passing through Kansas he had been possessed of a fear of what the altitude through the mountains would do to him, as he had twice before lost his mind temporarily through the rarified atmosphere.
